Magna civitas, magna solitudo. (Lat.)

A great city is a great solitude.【拉】大城市乃大荒漠。 magna cum laude (Lat.) with great praise: used in diplomas to grant the next-to-highest of three special honors for grades above the average.【拉】以優等成績(畢業)。

Magna est veritas, et prevalebit. (Lat.) Truth is mighty, and it will prevail.【拉】眞理無敵終必得勝。

Magna est vis consuetudinis. (Lat.) The force of habit is great.【拉】大哉習慣之力;習慣牢不可破。

Magna Graecia the ancient colonial cities and settlements of Greece in S Italy. 義大利南部之古代希臘殖民地。 magnesium arsenate (Chem.) a white, when pure, water-insoluble powder, $Mg_3(AsO_4)_2 \cdot xH_2O$, used chiefly as an insecticide.【化】砷酸鎂(主用作殺蟲劑)。 magnesium dioxide 見 magnesium peroxide.

magnesium hydroxide (Chem.) a white, crystalline, slightly water-soluble powder, $Mg(OH)_2$, used chiefly in medicine as an antacid and as a laxative.【化】氫氧化鎂。 magnesium light the strongly actinic white light produced when magnesium is burned: used in photography, signaling, pyrotechnics, etc. 鎂光(用於攝影、信號及烟火等)。 magnesium oxide (Chem.) magnesia.【化】氧化鎂。 magnesium peroxide (Chem.) a white, tasteless, water-insoluble powder, MgO_2, used as an antiseptic and as an oxidizing and bleaching agent.【化】過氧化鎂。 magnesium sulfate (Chem.) a white, water-soluble salt, $MgSO_4$, used chiefly in medicine and in the processing of leather and textiles.【化】硫酸鎂。 magnetic attraction the force or influence exerted by the earth, and recognized by its effects upon magnetized needles and bars. 地磁之吸引力。 magnetic axis (Phys.) a straight line connecting and extending through the poles of a magnet.【物理】磁軸;磁線。 magnetic circuit (Phys.) the closed path described by the lines of force of a magnetic field.【物理】磁路。 magnetic compass a compass having a magnetized needle generally in line with the magnetic poles of the earth. 羅盤。 magnetic equator the line around the earth at which a magnetic needle balances horizontally without dipping. 地磁赤道。 magnetic field (Phys.)【物理】① the space around a magnet, magnetic body (as the earth), or an electric current in which the magnetic force of the magnet or current is felt. 磁場。② the magnetic forces present in such a space. 磁場中之磁力。 magnetic flux (Phys.) the total number of lines of induction through a given cross section of a surface, expressed in maxwells or webers.【物理】磁通量。 magnetic flux density 見 magnetic induction.

magnetic force (Phys.) the force of attraction or repulsion exerted by a magnetic field upon a magnetic pole, electric charge, etc., placed in the region of the field.【物理】磁力。 magnetic induction (Phys.) a vector quantity used as a measure of a magnetic field, directly proportional to the force on a moving conductor in the field and inversely proportional to the product of the charge on the conductor and the velocity of the conductor.【物理】磁感應。 magnetic lines of force a series of invisible lines passing from one pole to another of a magnet, which taken together form the magnetic field. 磁力線。 magnetic meridian a line passing through both magnetic poles that represents the force exerted by the earth's magnetic field. 磁子午圈。 magnetic mine (Nav.) a large mine moored underwater and set off by any disturbance of its magnetic field, as by the metal hull of a ship.【海軍】磁性水雷。 magnetic moment (Phys.) a quantity associated with a given magnet, equal to the product of the pole strength and length of the magnet and having the property that its product with the field intensity of a uniform magnetic field gives the torque tending to move the magnet parallel to the lines of force of the magnet; a vector quantity having the property that its vector product with the magnetic-field vector of a magnetic field equals the torque acting on a given electric current, magnet, or the like, in the magnetic field.【物理】磁矩。 magnetic needle a slender bar of magnetized metal. When mounted so that it turns easily, it points approximately north and south toward the earth's Magnetic Poles. 磁針。 magnetic north the direction shown by the magnetic needle of a compass, differing in most places from the true north. 磁北。 magnetic pole the region of a magnet towards which the lines of induction converge (south pole) or from which the lines of induction diverge (north pole); either of the two points on the earth's surface where the dipping needle of a compass stands vertical, one in the arctic, the other in the antarctic. 磁極;磁北極。 magnetic potential (Elect.) a scalar quantity, analogous to the electric potential, defined at each point in a given magnetic field to be equal to the work done in bringing a unit north pole from infinity to the point.【電】磁勢;磁位。(亦作 magnetic scalar potential) magnetic pyrites (Min.) pyrrhotite.【礦】磁黃鐵礦。 magnetic quantum number (Phys.) the quantum number that designates the component of the orbital angular momentum in a fixed direction and that can assume all integral values between and including the orbital quantum number and the negative of the orbital quantum number.【物理】磁量子數。 magnetic recorder a device that records sound on magnetic tape, wire, etc. 錄音機。 magnetic scalar potential 見 magnetic potential.

magnetic storm a temporary disturbance of the earth's magnetic field, induced by radiation and streams of charged particles from the sun. 磁暴([illegible])。 magnetic tape ① a thin metal, plastic, or paper strip usually coated or impregnated with iron oxide, on which (in a tape recorder, electronic computer, etc.) a magnetic effect is produced so that sounds can be recorded on it in the form of fluctuations in the magnetism of the tape. 錄音帶。② a tape used in television to record both sound and image.【電視】錄音錄影帶。 magnetic variation (Navig.) declination, the deviation of the needle of a compass.【航海】磁差(指眞北與磁北之間向東或向西之角度差)。 magnetomotive force (Elect.) the force which gives rise to a magnetic field, equal to the product of magnetic flux and reluctance.【電】磁通勢。 magnify oneself (Script.) manifest a spirit of haughtiness.【聖經】夜郎自大;自命不凡。 magnify oneself against (Script.) treat disdainfully or with pride.【聖經】輕視;鄙薄;冷待;盛氣凌人。 magnify with have effect upon. 生效;影響及於。 magnifying glass a lens that produces an enlarged image of an object. 放大鏡。 magnifying power (Opt.) the ratio of the magnitude of the image to the magnitude of the object, usually expressed in diameters of the object; as, a magnifying power of 200.【光學】放大力(倍數)。 magnitude, of the first magnitude of utmost or major importance. 很重要的; 最重要的; 最嚴重的; 第一流的。an artist of the first magnitude. 第一流的藝術家。a liar of the first magnitude. 天大的說謊者。

Magnolia State a nickname for the State of Mississippi. 美國密西西比州之別稱(因 magnolia 爲其州花)。 magnum bonum (Lat.) a great good.【拉】大善。

Magnum est vectigal parsimonia. (Lat.) Economy is a great revenue.【拉】節流卽是開源。 magnum opus (Lat.) great work; masterpiece.【拉】傑作。

Magnus effect (Mech.) the thrust on a cylinder rotating about its axis while in motion in a fluid, the thrust being perpendicular to the relative motion of the cylinder in the fluid.【機械】馬格納斯效應(作用於置於氣流中之旋轉圓筒之側方推進力)。

mahogany flats bedbugs. 臭蟲。 mahogany, have one's knees under someone's mahogany be dining with him. 與之共餐。 mahogany, put (or stretch) one's legs under a man's mahogany enjoy his hospitality. 受人款待。 phosphorus pentoxide (Chem.) a white, deliquescent, crystalline powder, P_2O_5, that, depending upon the amount of water it absorbs, forms orthophosphoric acid, metaphosphoric acid, or pyrophosphoric acid, produced by the burning of phosphorus in dry air: used in the preparation of phosphoric acids, as a drying and dehydrating agent, and in organic synthesis. 【化】五氧化二磷。(亦作 phosphoric anhydride) phosphorus sesquisulfide (Chem.) (not in scientific use) a yellow, crystalline, flammable substance, P_4S_3, insoluble in cold water and decomposed by hot water: used chiefly in organic synthesis and in the manufacture of matches. 【化】三硫化四磷。 phosphorus trichloride (Chem.) a clear, colorless, fuming liquid, PCl_3, used chiefly in organic synthesis as a chlorinating agent. 【化】三氯化磷。 phosphoryl group (Chem.) the trivalent group, ≡P=O. 【化】磷醯基化合物。(亦作 phosphoryl radical) phosphureted hydrogen (Chem.) phosphine. 【化】磷化氫(PH_3, 一種有毒氣體)。 phossy jaw necrosis of the jawbone or teeth, caused by continued inhalation of phosphorus vapors. 磷毒性壞死;磷毒性顎骨疽。 photo finish ①a finish of a race in which two or more contestants are so close to the finish line that reference to a photograph of the finish is necessary to decide on the winner. 攝影的終局(競賽者幾乎同時抵達終點,必須依攝影始能決定勝負之終局)。②any contest decided by a narrow margin of victory. 任何相差極微的競賽。 photoelectric cell (Electronics) a device incorporated in an electric circuit to make the resistance or electromotive force of part of the circuit variable in accordance with variations in the intensity of light or similar radiation falling upon it, thus making operations controlled by the circuit dependent on variations in illumination, a beam of radiation, etc.; a phototube. 【電子】光電管。 photoelectric current (Phys.) photocurrent. 【物理】光電流。 photoelectric effect (Phys.) the phenomenon in which the absorption of electromagnetic radiation, as light, of sufficiently high frequency by a surface, usually metallic, induces the emission of bound electrons from the surface. 〖物理〗光電效應。 photoelectric meter (Photog.) an exposure meter using a photoelectric cell for the measurement of light intensity. 〖照相〗曝光表。 photoelectric threshold (Phys.) the minimum frequency or maximum wavelength of incident radiation necessary to release photons from a given surface. 〖物理〗光電門。 photoflash lamp (Photog.) a flash bulb. 〖照相〗閃光燈。 photoflash photography photography with the aid of flash bulbs. 使用閃光燈之照相。 photoflood lamp an electric light bulb of high wattage that gives very bright, sustained light for taking pictures. (照相用)強烈攝光燈。 photomultiplier tube photomultiplier. 光電倍加管。 photovoltaic cell (Elect.) a cell in which an electromotive force is generated by a photovoltaic effect. 〖電〗光電管;光生伏打電池。 photovoltaic effect (Phys.) the phenomenon in which the incidence of electromagnetic radiation upon the junction of two dissimilar materials, as a metal and a semiconductor, induces the generation of an electromotive force. 〖物理〗光生伏打效應。

Phrygian cap a soft, conical cap represented in ancient Greek art as part of Phrygian or oriental dress and associated, since the late 18th and early 19th centuries, with the liberty cap. 一種圓錐形軟帽。
